He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever.

Revelation 21 v 4

Battles are over

This week we have thought about different kinds of battles that people faced in the Bible, and how they got their courage.

Which idea did you like best this week? Try drawing a picture of it here:

I wonder if you can make yourself some armour from things that you find around your house – maybe you could use cardboard boxes, or maybe a bike helmet, a cushion (breastplate/body armour), a pan lid for a shield... see what you can find and maybe ask a grown-up to take a picture of it so you can see what you look like. If you know other people from your school are doing this maybe you could share it on your school system. Have fun seeing how other people have made their armour!

This Friday the whole country will be celebrating the 75th anniversary of VE Day – the end of World War II in Europe. It was a great day for people, but a lot of very hard things had happened before then. Sometimes we have to deal with sad, unhappy and difficult things but the Bible says that one day all sadness will be over. For Christians that is a really exciting thought: I wonder how it makes you feel?...

This week's stories were from:

Ruth chapter 2 v 4 Joshua chapter 6 1 Kings chapter 18

Ephesians chapter 6 v 13- 17 Revelation 21 v 4
