

The Last Supper

Passover - remembering escaping slavery in Egypt

Who would you invite to share a meal with you and why?

Fill in what Jesus was saying to the disciples and then what you think Judas (the one leaving who betrayed him) and the other disciples might have been thinking.

Whenever Jesus picked up bread - at the Passover meal, on the Road to Emmaus, when feeding the 5,000 - he gave thanks to God for it. Can you think of 10 everyday things we take for granted and should be thankful for?

When taking Eucharist or communion, Christians give thanks for the bread and wine. It is not the food and drink that inspires their prayers. What are they thankful for?
