Acts chapter 2 (a selection of verses The Bible NCV)

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a noise like a strong, blowing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw something like flames of fire that were separated and stood over each person there. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak different languages by the power the Holy Spirit was giving them. There were some religious Jews staying in Jerusalem who were from every country in the world. When they heard this noise, a crowd came together. They were all surprised, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They said, "Look! Aren't all these people that we hear speaking from Galilee? But we hear them telling in our own languages about the great things God has done!" They were all amazed and confused, asking each other, "What does this mean?"

But Peter stood up with the eleven apostles, and in a loud voice he spoke to the crowd: "My fellow Jews, and all of you who are in Jerusalem, listen to me. Pay attention to what I have to say. Jesus from Nazareth was a very special man. God clearly showed this to you by the miracles, wonders, and signs he did through Jesus. You all know this, because it happened right here among you. God raised Jesus from the dead and set him free from the pain of death, because death could not hold him. So Jesus is the One whom God raised from the dead. And we are all witnesses to this. Jesus was lifted up to heaven and is now at God's right side. The Father has given the Holy Spirit to Jesus as he promised. So, all the people of Israel should know this truly: God has made Jesus - the man you nailed to the cross - both Lord and Christ."

When the people heard this, they felt guilty and asked Peter and the other apostles, "What shall we do?"

Peter said to them, "Change your hearts and lives and be baptised, each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Then those people who accepted what Peter said were baptised. About three thousand people were added to the number of believers that day. They spent their time learning the apostles' teaching, sharing, breaking bread, and praying together. The apostles were doing many miracles and signs, and everyone felt great respect for God. All the believers were together and shared everything.
